

Saint Raphael Academy presents

THEATRE CAMP

July 30–August 3 from 9AM–2PM

Tuition: $150

(open to students entering grades 7, 8 & 9)

Saint Raphael Academy Theatre Camp offers young actors the opportunity to experience theatre and explore the craft of acting. Students will learn the crucial skills of building characters, playing objectives, and expressing interior emotions physically and vocally. Students will discover how to express themselves individually and how to work as an ensemble. They will also gain valuable leadership skills while having fun and making friends. A final performance will be held on Friday, August 3, at 1PM. Families are invited.

Instructor

Moira Costigan-Carraher is a Rhode Island-based actor, vocalist, director and teacher. She is a Saint Raphael Academy alumna and is one of the directors of the theatre program at the Academy. She directed Antigone, which won the RI State Drama Festival 2018. She has been teaching theatre and directing for almost 20 years, and she has over 20 years of vocal training. She has been acting for most of her life, most recently, at the Wilbury Theatre Group in Providence. She also works as an Artist in Residence at the Jaqueline M. Walsh School for Performing Arts. She works with The Manton Avenue Project in Providence and teaches acting at the Sandra Feintstein Gamm Theatre.

The registration deadline is June 1, 2018, however, registration will be processed on a first-come, first-serve basis. Once the program is full, we will begin a waitlist. Please mail your check for $150 and your registration form (below) to: Saint Raphael Academy—Theatre Camp, 123 Walcott Street, Pawtucket, RI 02860. Please provide accurate contact information as it will be used to communicate with you post registration.
